THE CONNEAUT FAIR takes place on Wednesday of next week, and continues three days.

THE ASHTABULA FAIR comes off on the 24th and 25, the entries are made the day previous. The exhibition, is expected to be an advance upon any previous year. Let the expectation be more than realized.

PAY DAY .- Friday of last week was a gracious day for our volunteers, and a somewhat active one for our traders. The Morgan and Ashtabula companies had the pleasure of meeting the paymaster and fobbing the pay for about four months service, the last of which was spent with their families at home. Many of the boys received within a fraction of $70. The swings, &c. without license, in the vicinity of the possession of such an amount in gold-in Fair Grounds, will be strictly enforced. double engles, made the boys draw their corners. The borough authorities having had the foresight to close the saloous, the wetting their whistles, until along in the af- pay entry. ternoon some ready trafficers were found to the test. Quite a little harvest was enjoyed by our haberdashers, and a beting a liberal and satisfactory one, and his in these times, many have again culisted, & to compete. the remainder, with many new ones, will no doubt do the same.

Horace Brown, of Morgan, the P. Master informs us, has gone to Minnesota. About Horace's old clothes is $5 50 belonging to us, which we feel some interest in having well invested, so that when we come, we may receive our own with usury. If Horace has left any friends in this quarter we

CAPT. CARLIN, as we mentioned last week, has been back to Conneaut to recruit an for St. Louis with 59 men, among the number, N. J. Smith, Esq. This makes 150 that have been enlisted at Conneaut, including two members of the bar-Chapman and Smith. This is doing well for our sister

They have been picked up by so many different Farms or farm crops, without a full, correct and persons, and gone in so many different di - satisfactory statement, in writing, to be furnishrections that it would be difficult to reach ed the Secretary before the meeting in Novemanything like a correct conclusion. John F. Gifford, leaves on Monday next, with a squad of 10 for Capt. Kinney's Battery and Copt. Burrows has another squad from here, for the Wade and Hutchins regiment, with which our young townsman, E. B. Hubbard, lately of West Point, has identified himself. Then our young barrister friend O. C. Pratt, leaves at the same time, with 22 men, also for Capt, Kinney's Battery. Some 15 or 20 we learn have been secured for Col. Carrington's 18th infantry, and some few have been taken to Erie, and other places, making the whole number fully equal, or superior to the generous contribution of our neighbors.

The Wade and Hutchins regiment of cavalry is nearly or quite full, and in camp at Cleveland. The purchase of horses has days past, and 30 were forwarded to camp during the present week. The company enlisted in this county, went into a choice of officers at Jefferson, on Monday last, resulting in the election Wm. J. Keene, of Audover, Captain; T. D. Leslie, of Geneva, 1st, and A. D. Strong, of this town, 2d Lieutenants. They were to go into camp on Friday of this week.

ROMANTIC .- The Cleveland Leader, of the 4th says that three young women were discovered on that morning with the 41st regiment, attired as males, having enlisted as the names of all the Judges must be affixed, and such. Quite a sensation was caused among the reports must be returned to the Secretary the soldiers. Our Familiar wants to know how the discovery was made, Mr. Locat.

KINGSVILLE ZOUAVE CADETS-A uniform company of young masters, equiped with imitation fire arms, numbering 35, with music and banners, passed through town on Thursday, on their way to Jefferson to attend the fair, show themselves, and try a night's ticles for exhibition. rest around lose on the ground. They looked quite soldierly, and inspired a very comfortable thought of promise. Kingsville is behind no other town in spirit and patriotism, and the prestige thus afforded by her youth, is one that she might be proud of without the charge of weakness.

Assault .- A brace of chaps named re spectively Elwell and Thompson, without provocation, made a savage assault upon Arthur Johnson, one day this week laying his scalp open with a hoe handle. They were arrested and arraigned before Justice Booth, who finding sufficient cause of action against them, put them under bonds for appearance, and not being able to find any one to endorse them for $50, they submited to take board with sheriff Hendry, where they might be handy when wanted.

BURST Ur .- The N. Y. Democratic convention at Syracuse, burst up on the exclusion of the Anti-Tammany, or Mozart Hall delegation. The vote on the exclusion was 85 to 120.

The Methodist Chunch is drawing near completion. The frescoing and other painting is done in good taste, and the ladies are now engaged with the upholstery and carpeting, and the whole will soon be in readiness for dedication and occupation.

THE CONGREGATIONL CHURCH is progressing as fast as the business of stone cutting wil ladmit of. The walls are so far up as to have received the stone window caps, and the front begins to show something of its tasteful design.
